End of Season Report not submitted as of 7/2/10. The LHS Girls' Varsity Four took home MVC Champions: Arianna Rogers, Ashley Price-Dyment, coxswain Natali Soto, Rachel Walsh and Haley Clarke. The LHS crew team has hosted several major regattas, including the 2nd Annual Novice Challenge, the 6th Annual Lowell Invitational, the 1st annual MVC Championships, the Massachusetts State Championships, and the USRowing Northeast Regional Championships.

The home races began with the Novice Challenge, with 14 visiting novice teams. Lowell fared well, picking up 3 silver medals and two bronze medals.

The sixth-annual Lowell Invitational brought 38 teams from five states to the banks of the Merrimack River. LHS picked up two silver medals and two bronze medals, placing 6th overall.

LHS Crew won the first ever Merrimack Valley Championship for rowing, placing first over Andover, Chelmsford and Westford Academy. The team picked up five gold medals, four silvers, and two bronze, with the girls squad winning every single event in the regatta.

At the State Championships, Lowell continued to impress, with the 7 of their 8 entries qualifying for the grand finals. The boys' varsity four won a silver medal, placing just 1.5 seconds behind first place Duxbury. The girls 2nd varsity eight won a bronze medal, edging out fourth place Boston Latin by .5 seconds. The girls 3rd varsity eight placed fourth, just missing the medals stand.

Hosting the USRowing 2010 Northeast Junior District Championships was nothing less than a dream come true for the crew team. 47 visiting teams, from eight neighboring states and Canada, came to Lowell for two days of intense racing. Lowell proved to be strong competitors, with three of our five entries qualifying for the grand finals and placing 5th overall in the Northeast: the boys' varsity eight, who missed a trip to nationals by a mere two seconds, placed the highest ever in history for an LHS heavyweight eight at this regatta; the girls' novice four and the girls' lightweight eight also turned in history-making results with their 5th place finishes. The girls' varsity four narrowly missed the grand final, placing 7th overall. (Story compiled by Red & Grey Report supplied by Jim DeProfio)

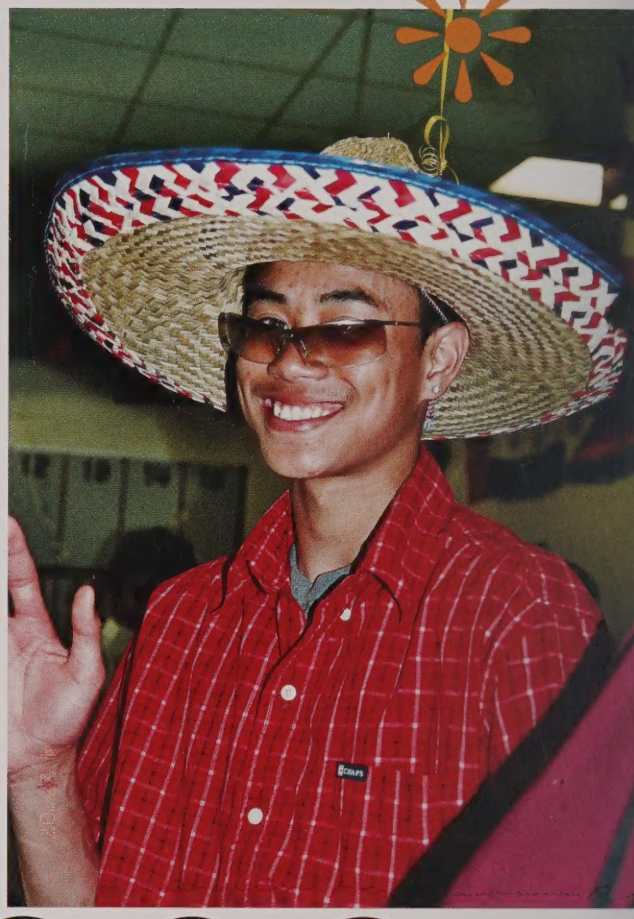
Shake Your Maraca Maker

Fun, Fun, Fun at the Freshman Fiesta



With upbeat hypnotic sounds from DJ Mike of NewStyle Entertainment, over 300 freshman and their guests crowded their little piece of heaven in the Thomas F. Murphy Cafeteria for their first LHS formal. For a low price of $10 per person, revelers were treated to Subway sandwiches, chips and cake with the mandatory all night soda filling the cups of sweaty teens.

Changing up the theme for the April 2007 event, Student Activities Director Jill McNamara commented, "Student government members wanted to give the Freshman dance a little flavor, so we added a catchy theme just in time for Cinco de Mayo."

Decorations included vibrant orange & yellow table cloths with accompanying balloons that added authentic flavor to the festive dance. Sombreros adorned many a scalp while maracas added just the right sound to the most popular dance tunes.

The night wouldn't have been complete without documentation from our friends at Photos In A Minute that printed individual, couple and buddy shots for a low cost on site.

Tourney Bound

Small School Division

When I walked on the field that warm September afternoon, I never would have thought that I would be in the situation I am now. Five minutes before halftime, a Chelmsford Lion and I collided going for the same ball, and unfortunately I was the one who went down with a dislocated jaw. It was hard to sit on the sidelines during both games and practices; it took some time getting used to. Although I loved cheering on my teammates, it wasn't the same as actually playing on the field with them. The majority of the seniors were on the bench from the beginning of the season, but we were lucky enough to have such a close-knit group of girls whom earned us a seed in the state tournament with a record of 11-4-3. Fortunately, my oral surgeon cleared me to start practicing with the team one week before the big state tournament game against Central Catholic. That night, stepping out onto that field gave me a feeling like no other. I was proud of my team for putting in the hard work and effort to get us to the state tournament which gave me the chance to play for the Red & Grey one last time. Although we did not walk off of the field with a win, I was able to walk off of the field with my head held high knowing that I gave everything I had in my capstone game as a member of Lowell High Soccer. ~Erin Gallagher

Psyched to play, the team huddles before the action begins at center field.

A FOR EFFORT Silly seniors Omisi Agbe-Ranhe, Sarah Montiero, Victoria Harvey, Erin Gallagher, Rebecca Raymond, Kristina Braga & Cher Long show off their pyramid formation. Having some fun during practice, the team pig piles with Cher Long, Julie Ramirez & Becca Raymond too good to join in the mayhem. Sophomore Johanna Vergados makes the inbound kick for Lowell. Going in the opposite direction, Nina Braga steps up the defense with a steal; Kristina was named to the Eastern MA All Star Second Team. Fighting for control, freshman Sarah Raymond eyes the ball already in motion.

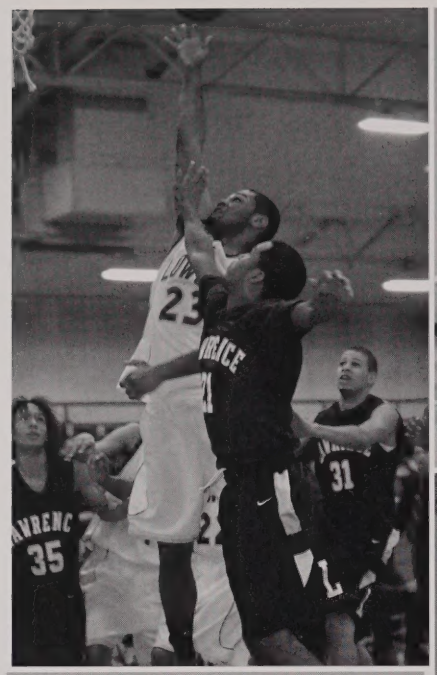
LISTEN UP With a timeout called, First Year Coach Phil Conners explains the next in bound play. Off the tips of his fingers, guard Benny Torres lets the ball flow from three point range. Taking it down the court, Ryan Newton drives hard to the rack.



Fighting during flight, center Alex Mitchell reaches beyond his Lawrence opponent to grab the rebound off the rim. Coming out of the pre-game huddle, Danny Meas raises his arm for the team chant. Against the pressure, guard Eric Vargas moves around the top of the key to set up the play. Seniors Hector Torres, Danny Meas, Eric Vargas, Ryan Newton, Alex Mitchell & Benny Torres worked hard despite a coaching change just days before the season began. Going in for an easy layup, guard Hector Torres puts in an easy two.

Changing Style

With a new coach in place just three days prior to the season, the boys basketball team changed their style and adapted to Coach Phil Conners. With a lack of size in the paint, players managed to be aggressive and put a scare into their larger opponents. Three games were lost at the buzzer on "freak plays" stated Coach Conners. Ultimately giving the Red Raiders a lower seeding in the MIAA Tournament.

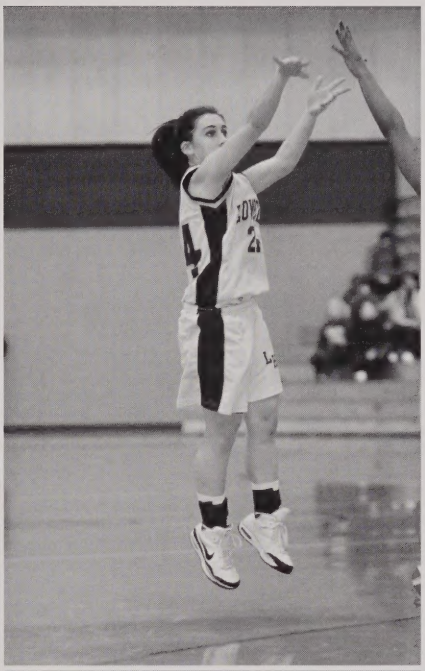
Witness the Impossible

With only one returning starter in Molly Desmond, the Lady Red Raiders were considered "rebuilding" during the season. However, with a renewed spirit following a disappointing holiday tournament run, the team swiftly made haste of their MVC opponents racking up 17 wins along the way and proving to all contenders that winning is within, not put upon you. Battles with Andover & Central Catholic brought out the fierceness of players and the desire to win.



Going up & over her Central defender, captain Tess Cigliano makes her shot from the block. Teammate Molly Desmond shared the responsibilities of captain with Tess. At the top of the key, point guard Molly Desmond gets some height for the three point shot. Molly & Tess Cigliano were named to the MVC All Conference Team while Brigette Ravagli & Diamond Jones were named MVC All Stars. Palm handling the ball, guard Trisha Luis charges toward the hoop. Squeezing in for a lay-up, small forward Brigitte Ravagli moves through traffic.

Where Winning is Tradition

With only a handful of returning wrestlers, this young, inexperienced team showed improvement throughout the season and made great gains in continuing the winning tradition of the Red Raider Wrestling program.

As Headmaster of Lowell High School and on behalf of the administrators, teachers and staff, I want to congratulate all of you for successfully completing your high school education and receiving your diploma from Lowell High School. You are the 180th class to graduate from Lowell High School. You follow in the footsteps of many distinguished graduates of this high school, names like Senator Paul Tsongas, General Benjamin Butler, Author Jack Kerouac and Dr. Joseph McCarthy world renowned plastic surgeon and this year's keynote speaker at your graduation.

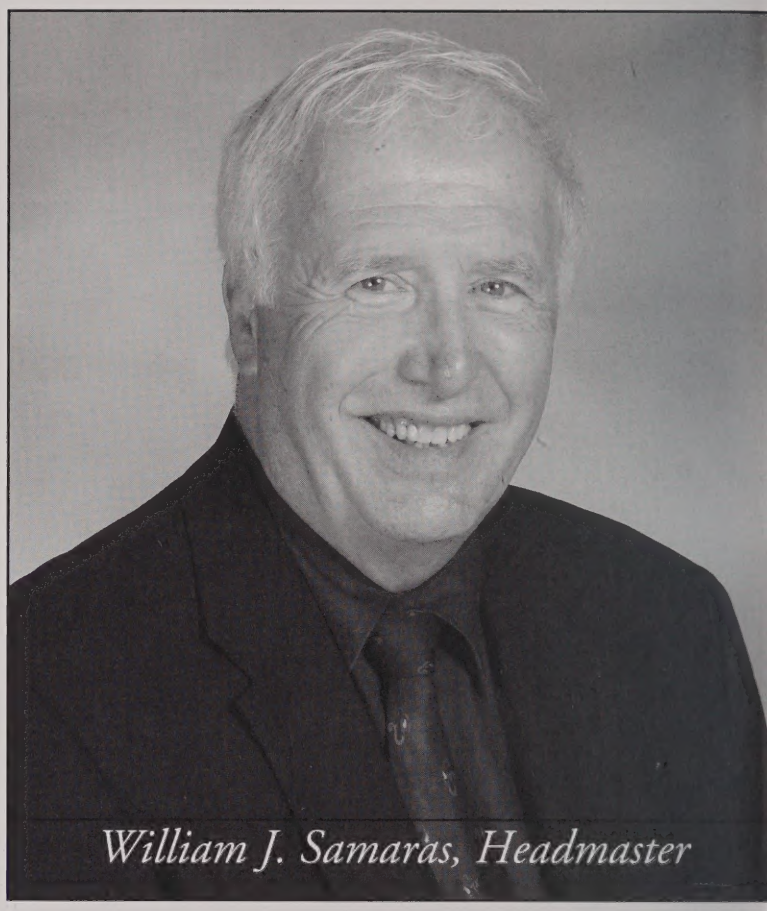
. . . With 45 years of service to the Lowell School Department and the last 18 years as Headmaster of Lowell High School William Samaras bids farewell. . .

During the past four years, I have had the opportunity to watch as you entered this high school as excited freshmen eager to learn and to be a part of the many co-curricular activities that the high school offered. I see you now as mature young adults prepared to graduate and make your mark. It is my observation; it is my contention that you have the requisite skills and knowledge to be the next Distinguished Alumni of Lowell High School.

On a personal note, I am retiring from my position as Headmaster of Lowell High School, and what better way to end my career than to be part of your graduation. I want you to know there is no better job in this city. I have had the opportunity to meet with many of you, your parents and to be part of many of the activities that you have participated in. An example would be the Headmaster's Cabinet, a group of students who helped me understand the needs of the high school. As you have learned from my staff in many cases, I have learned from you.

I want you to know, I am proud of each of you; I will miss being part of the school, but I will have pleasant memories about this school and you.

What better way to close a career, thank you.



William J. Samaras, Headmaster

What was your favorite subject in high school?

My favorite subject in high school was literature. I love to read. Even today, I regularly visit the library and borrow books or books on CD, so I can listen while driving. Reading and listening are great ways to keep our mind active, and keep up with the best sellers.

My favorite subject in high school was foreign language; I took Russian, German, and French. Having the opportunity to take these subjects motivated me to go out and see the world, which I did by joining the Army as a Linguist.

RECOGNIZING EXCELLENCE
With a slight peck on the cheek, Headmaster Samaras greets his wife, retired ELL teacher Joyce Samaras after he received the Commitment to Excellence Award from the Climate Committee at an Early Release Day assembly for faculty & staff.

WITH DISTINCTION
Welcoming the 2009 Distinguished Alumni class, Headmaster Samaras acknowledges the efforts of Robert Lekites, Gilbert Campbell, Mary E. O'Brien, Gail McMahon Theil, family representative for Edward McMahon, and Allison Giles & Allen Hobbs Jr., family representatives of Charles H. Allen.

Helping students Earn a Perfect Score

Lowell High School staff members were asked to complete a short survey of questions that are answered within the Faculty/Staff pages. Many stories caught the attention of yearbook staffers, but none more unique than the Prom story of Jenn Smulligan.

When asked, "What was your most memorable moment in high school?" Jenn Smulligan responded, "I shaved my head and dyed my hair purple, pink & turquoise for prom!" When asked why, she replied, "Hair grows back...simple anatomy!"

Dancing through 48 minutes, a well coiffed Jenn Smulligan tries to bring life to class.

With matching hair, Jenn Smulligan brings Brian Albertson to her 2000 Sr Prom at Gloucester High School.

End of Season Report not submitted as of 7/2/10. The LHS Girls' Varsity Four took home MVC Champions: Arianna Rogers, Ashley Price-Dyment, coxswain Natali Soto, Rachel Walsh and Haley Clarke. The LHS crew team has hosted several major regattas, including the 2nd Annual Novice Challenge, the 6th Annual Lowell Invitational, the 1st annual MVC Championships, the Massachusetts State Championships, and the USRowing Northeast Regional Championships.

The home races began with the Novice Challenge, with 14 visiting novice teams. Lowell fared well, picking up 3 silver medals and two bronze medals.

The sixth-annual Lowell Invitational brought 38 teams from five states to the banks of the Merrimack River. LHS picked up two silver medals and two bronze medals, placing 6th overall.

LHS Crew won the first ever Merrimack Valley Championship for rowing, placing first over Andover, Chelmsford and Westford Academy. The team picked up five gold medals, four silvers, and two bronze, with the girls squad winning every single event in the regatta.

At the State Championships, Lowell continued to impress, with the 7 of their 8 entries qualifying for the grand finals. The boys' varsity four won a silver medal, placing just 1.5 seconds behind first place Duxbury. The girls 2nd varsity eight won a bronze medal, edging out fourth place Boston Latin by .5 seconds. The girls 3rd varsity eight placed fourth, just missing the medals stand.

Hosting the USRowing 2010 Northeast Junior District Championships was nothing less than a dream come true for the crew team. 47 visiting teams, from eight neighboring states and Canada, came to Lowell for two days of intense racing. Lowell proved to be strong competitors, with three of our five entries qualifying for the grand finals and placing 5th overall in the Northeast: the boys' varsity eight, who missed a trip to nationals by a mere two seconds, placed the highest ever in history for an LHS heavyweight eight at this regatta; the girls' novice four and the girls' lightweight eight also turned in history-making results with their 5th place finishes. The girls' varsity four narrowly missed the grand final, placing 7th overall. (Story compiled by Red & Grey Report supplied by Jim DeProfio)
